Structural Business Rules

Casualty Type must have an associated Casualty Status and Casualty Category.

Casualty Type, Casualty Status, and Casualty Category must have an associated Casualty Date.

A DoD Military Service member may only have one Casualty Circumstances Remark associated with an instance of a Report of Casualty Type.

Casualty Status and Casualty Category must be determined after Casualty Type is established.

See Casualty Type / Casualty Status / Casualty Category Tabular Business Rule for existing relationship constraints between Casualty Type, Casualty Status, and Casualty Category.
